Nebraska, and that's very, very sad. But the thing is, we have it, it's here, and we have to deal with it. And the work camp concept for me is you're going to get them in, get them out and keep them out and make them better citizens so...and it is the first...it's the first-time felony, nonviolent felony type thing. So I think each one of these facilities handle a little different type of people and this is designed for this particular situation. It's a form of probation and, like I say, the people I've talked to have certainly convinced me it's a good thing to do.

SENATOR WITEK: Okay, another question I have is on the aftercare area. It did mention, and I'm not sure to point out exactly where, but I saw somewhere...

SENATOR WILL: One minute.

SENATOR WITEK: Oh, I'm sorry. Can I ask another question?

SENATOR WILL: Sure.

SENATOR WITEK: That we might be duplicating some of the services. I guess my concern on the aftercare is we've done a lot of talk on the Health Committee on juveniles and this whole community partnership and the...bill 587. What's the concept of aftercare? Is this just the same care that they are receiving now through the intensive supervision programs, or are we initiating new aftercare programs for juveniles?

SENATOR ENGEL: Well, Senator Witek, this is not a juvenile facility. It's for those who are tried as adults. It's not a juvenile facility.

SENATOR WITEK: Well...

SENATOR ENGEL: So the aftercare I'm sure would be different than it is for juveniles.

SENATOR WITEK: Well, juveniles tried as adults are...they're still going to be...okay, when the individuals who are in these facilities are released for intensive care supervision are we going to be starting new programs for aftercare for these
